New Flying J Travel Plaza Opens in Aurora, Oregon to Serve Professional Drivers

Pilot Flying J today announced the opening of a new Flying J Travel Plaza in Aurora, Ore., to better serve professional drivers.

"We understand that professional drivers make their living on the road, so we want to provide a great experience for them," said Pilot Flying J CEO, Jimmy Haslam. "We hope drivers will enjoy the convenience and amenities that the new Aurora Flying J Travel Plaza has to offer, including our PJ Fresh Marketplace which offers quick fresh and healthy food options."

The Aurora Flying J Travel Plaza is the tenth location in Oregon and will add 60 new jobs to help boost the local economy.

The Aurora Flying J Travel Plaza offers many amenities, including:

- Nine diesel lanes, 16 gas lanes and two RV lanes with high-speed pumps for quicker refueling
- Seven showers; 93 truck parking spots and 69 car parking spots
- CAT scale
- Subway restaurant
- PJ Fresh Marketplace
- Cinnabon
- Premium coffee and cappuccino selections
- Everyday products for quick shopping needs
- Two ATMS, public laundry, Western Union, fax and a game room

Expanding its network is one more step in Pilot Flying J's mission to making life better for professional drivers. The company has embarked on an extensive $50 million restroom remodel this year and will complete a $50 million shower remodel. Pilot Flying J offers DEF at the pump in more than 3,400 lanes nationwide. The combined network of more than 650 Pilot Travel Centers and Flying J Travel Plazas across North America serves more than 1.3 million customers daily.

As with all other Pilot Flying J locations, the Flying J Travel Plaza honors the MyRewards loyalty card, through which members can earn in-store retail and restaurant discounts.
